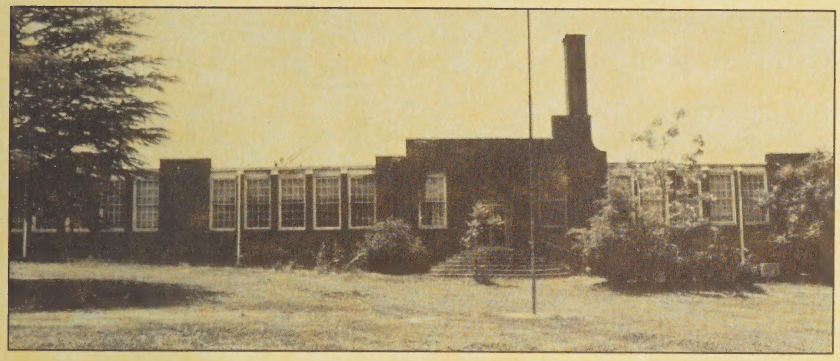
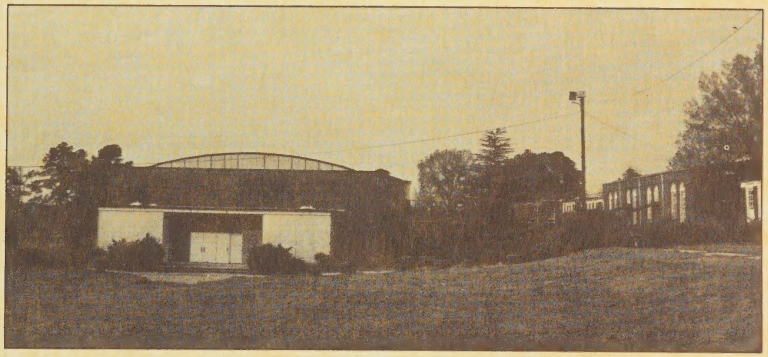
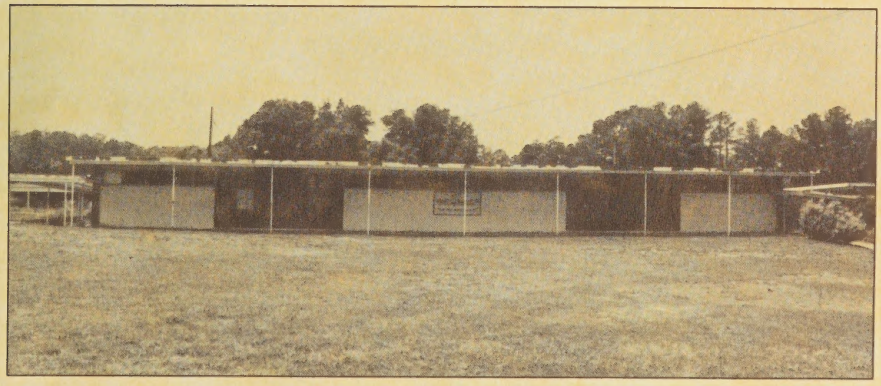
W.B. Wicker School

1929-1969







Fourth Reunion - 1995

W.B. WICKER SCHOOL SONG

Hail to thee Dear Alma Mater
Sing thy praises true
Ever loving thou art to us;
Guiding us anew.

Tho the paths of life are stormy
Nothing will we fear
Thou are always like a beacon
Shining year by year

Alma Mater fairest Mother
May we offer thee;
Loyalty to all thy virtues
Lifes of purity.

May thy grace be ever with us
Guide us far and near
We will honor ever serve thee
Alma Mater Dear.

Mrs. Sarah T. Sherill

The W.B. Wicker School Journal is dedicated to Mrs. Sarah T. Sherill because of her many years of dedication and service to education, the community, and to the Reunion Committee.

Mrs. Sarah T. Sherill has always believed that "schools exist for boys and girls and that these facilities should provide a good life within a wholesome environment. She feels that within this environment there should be challenging situations that are carefully planned with guided experiences. She feels that this then will cause children to become well-rounded individuals."

As a child, Mrs. Sherill, would fantasize about playing the piano. She made a keyboard on the window sill in her home and pretended to play it. Her parents recognized that she had a natural talent for music. This led them to seek a professional music teacher to help to enhance her talent. Thus, she began her musical career by commuting to Southern Pines, North Carolina every Saturday for music lessons.

Mrs. Sherill's formal education began at the age of five in the Lee County School System. Her overwhelming desire to teach started when she was a child. Her parents were her role models, because they, too, were educators.

Mrs. Sherill graduated from W.B. Wicker School (Lee County Training School) in 1936. She attended North Carolina Central University and her major concentration was history with a minor concentration in music. While at NCCU, she was the organist for St. Titus Episcopal Church for three years. After she graduated from NCCU, she matriculated at Winston-Salem State College and received her teaching certificate in Public School Music.

Mrs. Sherill has a son, Charles, who is a talented musician, a granddaughter and many foster children and grandchildren. She, too, is well admired and loved by all the people who know her.

One of Mrs. Sherill's most outstanding accomplishments before she retired from the Lee County School system in 1982 was that the "North Carolina Association for Retarded Citizens" chose her Teacher of The Year in 1980.

History

W.B. Wicker School originated from one of the first Afro-American schools in Lee County - South Sanford Graded School. It was a wood frame structure that stood on Washington Avenue near the present Mt. Sinai Holiness Church. The one high school classroom, 7th grade, was located on the second floor of the building. There were six students in this class. Only five can be identified. Mr. Edward Boykin, Mr. W.B. Wicker, Mr. Clarence McLeod, Miss Lessie McIver, and Miss Omie Davis. Mrs. Margaret P. Hoke was one of the elementary teachers and Mrs. Mary McLean, Miss Irene McIver, and Mrs. Lois Douglas were three of her students. Mr. S.D. McRae was the principal until 1924 when Mr. Wicker returned to serve in this position.

W.B. Wicker School was erected in 1927 by the Rosenwald Fund and it was known as Lee County Training School. There was only one building; it housed elementary students and the cafeteria on the lower level and high school students, library and office on the upper level. The first graduating class was in 1929 and there were seven students in this class. They were Elizabeth Brodie, Clemmye Moore (Historian and Treasurer), Walter Monroe (Valedictorian), Patsy Robinson (Salutatorian and President), Beatrice Norment, Eugene Street, and Mattie Street. Mrs. Clemmye Monroe Slaughter and Mrs. Elizabeth Brodie still survive. Some of the first teachers were Miss M.E. McKoy, Mrs. Hattie Bell, Ms. Vivian Alston, Dr. James Bell, and Coach Jethro Henry.

The original building at W.B. School grew from one structure in 1927 to nine buildings in 1964, valued at around one-half million dollars. The school was renamed in 1954 in honor of Mr. W.B. Wicker for his many years of dedicated service.

The school accommodated students in grades one through twelve. It was also built to meet the needs of Afro-American students in Lee County. Although there were satellite elementary schools for Afro-American students, W.B. Wicker School was the only high school. Mrs. Marea Emerson Singletary was an instructor at one of the satellite schools. She still resides in Lee County.

Most of the new buildings were designed by architect Timmy Hayes. These are erected around a quadrangle, featuring covered walks and giving the facility the appearance of a community college.

The W.B. Wicker auditorium, named also for Mr. Wicker, was erected in 1956 with four primary classrooms in the same unit. Later a gymnasium and an elementary library were built.

W.B. Wicker School offered academic courses as well as vocational, agricultural, home economics, commercial courses, and bricklaying. Students also participated in basketball, baseball, track, band, chorus (high school and elementary), and the following clubs: Science, Library, Drama, French, National Honor Society, Newspaper Staff, Yearbook Staff, and Vocational Clubs.

After the expiration of 60 years, the W.B. School held its first School Reunion. There were over 600 individuals who returned to renew friendships and acquire new ones at this fun-filled weekend. The Reunion was given in honor of its first graduates; Mrs. Patsy Robinson Alston, a retired educator and Mrs. Clemmye Monroe Slaughter, a retired Health Service Employee as well as an educator.

Many individuals in diverse professional settings contributed in a variety of ways to the birth of the first W.B. Wicker School Reunion process in 1989. The initial idea for the planning of the reunion was presented to the community in 1987 by Margaret Jefferson Wood.

Margaret Jefferson Wood

This meeting was held at Suzanne Reeves Library, Sanford, North Carolina. Officers were selected at this meeting and Margaret Jefferson Wood was approved to serve as President, a position that she held through 1993. Other officers approved at this gathering included: Clara Waddell Hoke, Financial Secretary; Shirley Morgan, Recorder; Essie Horton Whitfield, Treasurer; and Pervarice McLeod Blue, Historian. Others present at this meeting were: Paulette Harris Poe, Nora Williams Tysor, Hubert Waddell, Lucy Waddell Fox, and Clara Clark Hardy.

The selected officers needed more community support and additional individuals stepped forward to help. From this group committees were organized. Some of the committee chairs who joined the group were: Barbara Matthews Partridge, Planning; Margaret Bagley Murchinson, Program; Ruby Thomas Maxwell, Journal; Fannie Gillis Headen, Decoration; Cora Fox McIver, Registration; and Sarah Tuck Sherrill, Music. Other persons who joined the committee at the same time as the aforementioned were: Alice Smith Blue, A. Faye Pearson Cox, Lamont McIver, Charles Nelson, Clifford Cole, Jean Judd Dowdy, Joyce Foushee Mauldin, Helen McLean Brown, Emily Graham Leak, N[illegible] Street Verbal, Cheville Blackwell Branch, Thelma Groves Turner, Ophelia Newby Pal[illegible]rry Palmer, Fred B. Murchinson, Jr., Christopher Redding, Christine Crumpton Davis, [illegible] Trapp Reives, and Charles Marsh.

Lift Every Voice and Sing

Lift every voice and sing, till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of liberty;
Let our rejoicing, rise high as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of faith that the dark path has taught us;
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stoney the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet,
Come to a place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered
We have come, treading our path thro' the blood of the slaughtered,
Out of the gloomy past, till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;
thou who has by Thy might, led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee;
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine
Of the world we forget thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,
True to our God, true to our native land.

In Memoriam

To the memory of those who have passed from us. They are not far away.
We feel their comforting presence and know that they watch and wait . . .
For their memory will linger forever in our hearts.
